Squashpark- a modern squash facility

SquashPark is a squash centre located in the city of Poznań where the European Nations Challenge Cup will be held on 1-3 October 2009. SquashPark is one of the most modern squash facilities in Poland. It currently consists of 5 courts certificated by ASB with an electronic and multimedia system presenting scores and an independent wire broadcasting centre. The centre has also a fitness club and a spa. More information at www.squashpark.pl.
